GT CIBER, in collaboration with the China Research Center, the Emory Halle Center, and the National Association of Chinese Americans present

Yasheng Huang

Halle Distinguished Fellow reception and lecture on "Entrepreneurship in China"

On November 3rd, 2010

Venue:
White Halle 206
301 Dowman Drive
Emory University
Atlanta, GA 30322

A reception will be held from 4:15 - 5:00 p.m., with Professor Huang's talk from 5:00 - 6:30 p.m. Registration is required for this event. Please register here.

YASHENG HUANG

The China Research Center is pleased to welcome Professor Yasheng Huang for its 3rd Annual Event. This year's event is hosted by Emory University, with the first year's hosted by the High Museum of Art, and the second year's hosted by The Carter Center.

Founded in 2001, the China Research Center promotes understanding of greater China based on in-depth research and experience.
Yasheng Huang is professor of political economy and international management and holds International Program Professorship in Chinese Economy and Business at Sloan School of Management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He also holds a special-term professorship at School of Management, Fudan University and an honorary professorship at Hunan University.

In addition to academic journal articles, Professor Huang’s published books include Capitalism with Chinese Characteristics (2008, Chinese edition, 2010), a detailed narrative account of history of economic reforms in China. The book was selected by the Economist magazine as one of the best books published in 2008.

Yasheng Huang is professor of political economy and international management and holds International Program Professorship in Chinese Economy and Business at Sloan School of Management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He also holds a term professorship at School of Management, Fudan University and an honorary professorship at Hunan University.

In addition to academic journal articles, Professor Huang’s published books include Capitalism with Chinese Characteristics (2008, Chinese edition, 2010), a detailed narrative account of history of economic reforms in China. The book was selected by the Economist magazine as one of the best books published in 2008 and was also Finalist/Honorable Mention in Economics, Professional & Scholarly Publishing Division, Association of American Publishers, Inc.

In collaborations with other scholars, Professor Huang is conducting research on a range of research projects including higher education in China, production of scientific knowledge in China, on entrepreneurship, and on FDI. At MIT Sloan School, Professor Huang founded and runs China Lab and India Lab, which aim to help entrepreneurs in China and India improve their management.

This event is made possible by

Georgia Tech College of Management Center for International Business Education and Research

China Research Center

Hong Kong Association of Atlanta

National Association of Chinese-Americans